

As a premier service provider for Essbase® solutions, ITI Consulting will be pleased to advise you during any stage of your Business Intelligence project. From product selection, implementation, project management and database design, through to implementation, training and delivery of a complete solution. Whether your looking to streamline your Finance and Accounting reporting processes or provide a graphical front-end to your business data, ITI Consulting can help to make your business more 'intelligent'.