

ITI Consulting has designed and implemented Hyperion software applications since 2001. Our consultants are well-rounded and not only do they possess the necessary technical experience, but they also possess strong project management, financial/business process and change management skills.

In addition, our consultants are also highly knowledgeable of leading practices within the finance function. Our objective is to partner with our clients to achieve an efficient and effective solution to address their business issues.